SEE THE SUNDAY WORLD.

A GRAPHIC STORY OF JUST WHAT HAPPENS TO A YOUNG WOMAN AFTER THE POLICE SEIZE HER. *******

colorid.

* JOAQUIN MILLER'S "THE BURIED RIVER." NEW STORY, The Vinal Instalment, with Résumé of Preceding Chapters.

MARYLAND'S MAN-WOMAN CHUTAS NCENES IN CHINA'S BIGGEST CITY.

THE SOCIETY BELLES OF BALTIMORE.

NEW FADS AT THE RIG INAUGURAL BALL.

COLUMNS OF MISCELLANY AND SPECIAL ARTICLES.

*****

IN THE SUNDAY WORLD

PRICE ONE CENT.

NEW YORK, SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 23, 1889.

Republicans Indorse the Proposed Children's Law Amendment.

Tammany's Good Example Promptly Followed.

Every Reason for "The Evening World's"

7. All proceedings under this section (Sec. 201, Chap-676, Lars of 1881, and Chap. 46, Lars of 1884), when a commitment shall have been made, shall be subject to review by any court of record, upon certiforari on the facts and the law, and in such a proceeding the commit-ment order or judgment may be affirmed or revorsed or medified in such manner and to such extent as may seem best, or a rehearing of the charge ordered.

Tammany Hall of THE EVENING WORLD'S amendment to the iniquitous law which allews children to be taken from their parents and committed to institutions without possibility of appeal, the Republican County Committee has taken decisive and unanimous night. He offered the following resolution:

Action sustaining the agitation in behalf of the proposed amendment was urged by S. H.

Resolved, By the Republican Committee of the city and county of New York, that we hereby carnestly indorse and recommend the passage by the Legislature of the State of New York of the proposed ammendment to the Penal Code now pending before that legislative body that all proceedings under section 201, chapter 676, Laws of 1884, and chapter 46, Laws of 1884, when a commitment shall have been made, shall be subject to review by any court of record, upon certiorari on the facts and the law, and in such a proceeding the commitment order or judgment may be affirmed or reversed or modified in such manner and to such extent as may seem best, or a rehearing of the charge ordered.

It was evident that the sentiment of the

It was evident that the sentiment of the meeting was entirely with the proposer of the resolution, for Mr. Randall was loudly applauded and greeted with such cries as:
"That's the thing!" "This is what we want,"
"Hurrah for Randall!" and the like.
The motion was immediately seconded by Gen, Joseph C. Jackson, of the seventeenth District, and by Major John Wesley Jacobus, of the Nigh.

"THE EVENING WORLD as is widely known, has been earnestly agitating for reform, whereby the system of kidnapping children, which has been prevalent in New York under the forms of law as administered by certain organizations—the most prominent of which is the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty of Children—may be prevented, and suitable legislation provided whereby a review by appeal may be afforded in such cases to prevent injustice and the violation of family rights.

"I now recall two conspicuous instances, those of Josie Shephard and Tina Weiss, which illustrate the wrong that has been done under session of his or her child.

"Years ago the great heart of the North was touched by the earnest portrayal by Mrs. Stowe of the inhuman system whereby the families of colored chilren at the South were roken up and scattered.

broken up and scattered,
"But to-day, in this city of New York, and in this imperial State, there has been a system of white slavery tolerated and permitted whereby white children, usually the offspring of poor and humble parents, have been seized by the officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children. And this, too, on the slightest pretext and often without notice to their narents.

They have been brought before a police magistrate, a hurried hearing had, the children sent to some temporary asylum, and then distributed to families perhaps thou-and those who are its representatives, such as our body, to take notice of measures which promote the welfare of the community.

"Especially should we not be indifferent to any reform whereby the rights of the poorer classes may be promoted and the sanctity of home and the rights of parents

our own hearts are in sympathy with the rights of the humble and those who need pro-

Some means should be devised whereby no home shall be invaded and no little child on-payment of rent. While her furniture was upon the sidewalk two of her little children were in the house of a neighbor.

"They were taken by one of the officers of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children to the police court, and upon the charge of neglect by the mother, were sent to a hyenile assum untown.

o a juvenile asylum uptown.

tion.

Mrs. Myers is deeply grieved over their seiznre. She is too poor to secure legal aid for their recovery.

In order to get her out of the way Supt.

Jinkens brought a charge against her of misdemeanor for permitting another of her childemeanor for permitting another of her children. Sarah. a twelve-year-old girl, to sell papers on the streets.

"The case was tried in Special Sessions and I volunteered to appear in Mrs. Myers's behalf. The Judges debated so long that Supt. Jinkens was afraid the case would be decided against him.

POISON AND A BROKEN HEART

HUSBAND AND BOYS. Driven from Her Home, She Finds Refuge in Death-The Sad Ending of a Young and Pretty Woman in a Denver Hotel-

Scandalous Stories that Turned Her

A SUICIDE'S TOUCHING LETTERS TO HER

Husband Against Her. DENVER, Feb. 23. — Mrs. Nellie Carr, s young and pretty woman of this city, is lying dead in a Blake street undertaking establishment, where she was brought from a prominent hotel.

Her death was caused by poison, which she took to end her wretchedness.

She had been living happily with her husband and two little boys until last Tuesday, when a breach occurred and she was driven into the street. Stories affecting her reputation had been going around for several weeks, and on that which his wife's reputation was assailed. He showed them to her and she denied that they were true. There was a stormy scene, which ended in his ordering her out of the house and telling her that he never wanted to look upon her face again. Mrs. Carr went to a neighboring hotel and locked herself in the room assigned her. The meals that were brought up went back almost untasted.

Yesterday morning when the chambermaid knocked at her door, there was no response.

The door was forced open.

The woman hy dead upon her bed.

Two letters, one directed to her husband and the other to her boys, lay on a table near by.

They show that she was broken-hearted.

Here is the letter to her husband:

Beloved Husband: Now that my miserable life is at an end forget the past. I do not want you to grieve for me, for I know your love is all gone. Nothing to hold us but the boys, I would not take them from you, and cannot live with you. Forget our quarrels, and remember ouly the happy hours we spent. Then do, for God's sake, for my sake, and for the little ones, stay with the children evenings until they are asleep. Oh, don't leave them at night.

I freely forgive you for every wrong you have done, as I hope to be forgiven for my many shortcomings. Bury me quietly. Lay me beside my sister. Let there be no crape worn for me. God knows I have never neglected them one hour wilfully. Oh! my little ones, how can I leave them? Educate my boys and teach them that their erring mother loved them; but, Ben, let me say as my last words, there was never a word of truth in the letters people wrote you. Think kindly of me for my babies 'sake.

Your Wiffe.

This she wrote to her little sons: Here is the letter to her husband:

This she wrote to her little sons :

This she wrote to her little sons:

My Darling Boys: I must say good-by forever. This is truly the hardest task of all my life. Your little faces have been before me all day. Try and forget me as soon as possible, and don't forget that I died for love of you. Remember what I have taught you, that politeness, education and honesty make a man. My babies, if I were writing this with my heart's blood it could not be harder to do. Oh! babies, try to make good men of yourselves. Do not grieve after me. It is best that I am gone. Really, I am so nearly crazy that I cannot express my thoughts.

Boys, remember one thing I tell you. This is, always sympathize with and respect a woman, no matter who she is or in what position of life you find her. Good-by, babies. Try to live as your broken-hearted mother would have you,

THE ST. LOUIS VIEW OF MARY.

Criticisms Which Melt Gulates to Tears and Throw Abbey Into a Rage. Our Mary is in tears at St. Louis and Manager Henry E. Abbey is in a rage.

Miss Anderson has a five days' engagement there and the critics have been cruel.

This is what one paper says of Mary as Galatea:

She is a long-limbed, expressionless-featured woman, with a reach that would make a prize-fighter's fortune, and voice that is large and somewhat rich, but that has never been attuned to agreeable music, and that can no more interpret the low, sweet meleches of the soul than a mule can sing a lullaby or as buzz-saw can warble. The Last Rose of Summer. The insensate quality of her histrionism, sometimes mistaken for classical repose and often referred to as innate coldness, is really due to the absence of a force which is nearly always necessary to greatness in a tragedian.

And this is another critical gent:

And this is another critical gem: And this is another critical gem:

As for Perdita, the delineation of the sweet girlish rusticity and roseate warmth of love which crown the character of this delicious creation of Shakespeare is as far beyond Mary Anderson as the constellation of Hercules is beyond the dead and dinky moon. You might as well talk of the versatility of a marlinspike or the protean quality of a chunk of red granite It is as sensible to assert that Mary Anderson is twins or triplets as to assert that the is versatile. She is always Mary Anderson, undiaguised and unchangeable—pretty to look upon in repose, asreeable to listen to in declamatory bursts, beautifully robed and pictorially attractive, but a mediocre actress at every point, and a particularly unpleasing actress, because she does not add a solitary artistic beauty to her personal charms, and there is not a single scintillation of intellectual strength or force in any portion of her work.

If Mr. Abbey's present state of mind con tinues to exert its influence St. Louis will fo the future be shut off from any share in the notes of the divine Patti and in the other musical and dramatic commodities the dis-position of which is controlled by the now wrathful manager.

Arrivals at the Hotels.

Lieut. R. J. C. Irvine, U. S. A.; H. B. Ban-ning, of Cincinnati, and O. Pierce, of Chicago, are at the Grand Hotel. C. L. Baxter, of Portland, Me.; O. L. Dibble, of Seymour, Conn., and G. S. Batcheller, of Saratoga, are at the Gilsey House. Among recent arrivals at the Sturtevant are W. H. McCall, of Denver, and F. H. Terrell, of Washington.

Conspicuous at the Brunswick are George S. Mausell, of Boston; Alexander Paterson, of Montreat, and J. P. Hutchiuson, of Philadel-

Among the St. James guests are H. G. Ketcham, of Amberst, Nova Scotia: C. H. Weidell, of Chicago, and W. A. Cowles, of Con-

George M. Doe, of Boston; John L. Cork, of Chicago: George E. Warren, of Providence, and V. A. Sartori, of Leghorn, Italy, are at the Hoffman House.

P. D. Whitehead, of Boston; James Cooper, of Montreal, and Milton Clark, of Bochester, are stopping at the Albemarle. At the Fifth Avenue are Smith M. Weed, of Platt-burg; W. H. Coe, of Denver; George E. Lemon, of Washington, and Ithiel Stone, of

A. D. White and Samuel J. Keeck, of Buffalo; F. A. Harris, of Boston, and E. Tebbotts, of Philadelphia, are registered at the Bartholdi.

Ir you have the bronchitis, you often are Your throat's raw and smarting; you're backing, And if you're not careful, the first thing you Know.

Your langs are attacked, and disease lays you low.
By using Ds. Pirace's Golden Medical Discovery, bronchial affections and all kindred complaints can be cured, but if neglected, they often terminate in consumption.

Two Passengers Meet Death During a Daring Train Robbery.

The Engineer Stopped the Train at the Point of Two Revolvers.

Posses Are Out in Hot Pursuit of the DELANO, Cal., Feb. 23,-Five men boarded train No. 17 as it pulled out of Pixley last night.

two of them clambered on the engine and covered the engineer and firemen with their day Mr. Carr received several letters in revolvers, and compelled them to bring the train to a stop.

entered the express car and ordered the messenger to open the box.

Dynamite bombs were exploded under the Two of the passengers ran from the door

The robbers fired at them, killing one named Charles Gabert, of Pose, and fatally wounding E. S. Bentley, of Modesto. The train ran back to Pixley when released, where the news was left. The excitement was so intense that it could

The excitement was so intense that it could not be learned how much booty was secured. The passenger coaches were not molested. Another report says that but two men were engaged in the robbery.

One covered the engineer and the other terrified the messengers and passengers by the explosion of dynamite cartridges until the robbery was accomplished.

The two passengers, it is said, were shot because the robbers thought they were going to attack them. to attack them.

A posse has started from here and another from Pixley in pursuit of the desperadoes,

"LES SURPRISES DU DIVORCE."

"Lettery of Love" in German at Amberg's Theatre. "O Schwiegermama!" a farce in three acts. by F. Herrmann, was produced at Amberg's Theatre last night with immense success. "The Mother-in-Law" is really an adaptation of the necessful Bisson-Mars comedy of "Les Surprises du Divorce," which has produced as much aughter in Germany as in France. The story laughter in Germany as in France. The story is too well known to need repetition. It is not only-wonderfully amusing, but it is sparkling in dialogue, extremely funny in its situations, and in German is quite as effective, if not quite as refined, as in French and English.

It was splendidly played by Mr. Amberg's company of excellent comedians. Herr Ottbert as Henri Duval, the young man who geds rid of one mother-in-law only to find himself eventually saddled through the marriage of a new father-in-law with two, was capital. Herr Rank, as Bourganeuf, was quietly comical. Frl. Schmitz as Madame Bonivard (the mother-in-law) was a terror to young husbands, and Frl. Sandow was charming. The rest were as good as could be desired. Mr. Amberg had to respond with the artists to the enthusiasm of the German insta-righters. M. Coquelin is said to have been present at the rehearsals of the piece and to have warmly approved the German adaptation of the comedy.

O Schwiegermana!" will be given every night next week.

The Young Men's Institute is an organization somewhat on the plan of the Y. M. C. A., for Catholic young men only. Under the auspices of the Governing Committee an entertainment was given last evening at Chickering Hall for the purpose of obtaining funds for a suitable building in this city. The Institute is not merely building in this city. The Institute is not merely a local organization, but is the outcome of an effort to bring into closer relations the Catholic young men of the nation as thoir Protestant brothers have been.

"It is our intention, "said J. B. McGarvey, of the Committee. "to build a hall for this city worthy of our influence and numbers. Our headquarters are at present in San Francisco, where we have between 8,000 and 10,000 members. We have the approval of Cardinal Gibbons and Archbishop Corrigan and the support of our clergy. It is but five years since the Young Men's Institute was founded in San Francisco. Six months ago it was decided to organize east of the Bocky Mountains. Branches have been established in Vermont, Illinois, Ohio, Kentucky, Virginia and New York City."

The cutertainment last evening included a short address by Rev. Michael J. Lavelle, of St. Patrick's Cathedral, after which an entertaining programme was successfully carried through. Some delightful love songs were sung by Mine. Maria Salvotti, Sig. Emile Colletti and Mme. Keogh.

To Educate Colored Youths. Gen. W. T. Sherman, Mr. and Mrs. B. P. Flower, Mr. Lispenard Stewart and other wellknown society people interested in educational matters, is called the Kenesaw Educational Fund, for the purpose of establishing a college for colored youths in the State of Georgia. One of the means adopted for the purpose of receiving funds for putting up a building upon the grounds already purchased is the formation of the Creole Concert and Novelty Company, under the management of Henry R. Smith, formerly of the New York Casino. The first concert will be given at Steinway Hall, March 11, with Miss Cora Lee Watson, the colored prima donus, the De Wolf Sisters, Prof. Owens and a company of jubilee singers as attractions. Rev. y of jubilee singers as attractions. Hev. liam B. Derrick, of this city is agent for the White House.

Four German ironclads are ordered to sail immediately for Samoa.

School Teacher William M. Merriam, who dropped dead at Riverhead, leaves all his property to the United States Government. A Missouri Committee of Inquiry discovers that the piers of the southern bridge across the Kan-sas fliver, constructed at a cost to Wyamdotte County of $180,000, were filled in with sand instead of stone and that $120,000 was pocketed.

James Russell Lowell receives congratulations in Boston on his seventieth birthday.

An Elevated railroad train Jumps the track on the curve from Murray street to New Church street, causing a blockade for two hours.

A Dover (N. H.) jury sustains the will of George Barker, providing that his son Hiram may draw $250,000 every ten years that he keeps sober until he has had $1,000,000, and disinheriting him altogether if he once gets

"Consols," "Consols" Everywhere, Don't cloy your breath, whiskers and clothing with the fumes of impure eighreties when you can buy the fragrant "CONSOLS," all tobacco, anywhere and everywhere,

THE LETTERS FROM LETTIE. NO BETTER CLUES TO DRUGGIST CLARK'S

Chlengo's Police Still Much in the Dark Over the Murder-The Dend Man Had Many Affairs with Women, Having Been More Successful in That Direction Than in His Business Matters.

CHICAGO, Feb. 23.—The police are still in the dark as regards the murder of Druggist C. F. Clark, which took place last night at his store, at Harrison street and Hermitage

All the clues thus far obtained are in the letters from various women found in a little trunk in the dead man's room. Clark had a number of affairs on hand, chiefly with married women, and received many callers at his were signed "Lettie." One of these read

Mu. Clark: Are you going away sure, or are you fooling? I want to know, for I may take it into my head to send you a present next week; and if I should die don't yen think you would like to know of it? I am feeling better, but far from well. "Tis impossible for me to get out, and so you see I won't have a chance to say good-by unless I can get you over here. I don't think it will be long now, for I am in pain nearly all the time. "Tis all I can do to keep up. It makes nie feel as if I were doomed to die, and all for what?

I will tell you. Because I made a fool of myiff for a man that has no heart or feeling. You sow what I am going through every day, and an laugh at it and think its fun. Be careful,
y sweet lover, that it don't come home to you,
you said one time to me. My heart is dead,
t makes little difference to me if I live or hot,
tood-by.

hese words:

Sweethear: Come over by 1 r. m. or get illed. I will see you this afternoon, rain or LETTIE. The endeaver of the police is now to find the writer of these notes.

Just before the shot was fired into Clark's heart last night a woman was seen standing in the door of his place. Subsequently there were sounds of a quarrel and the report of a pixel.

band sought vengeance by shooting him

A MANIAC WHO HAD MONEY.

John C. McLaughlin Stirs Up the Officers at this morning. dazed and was acting queerly, but paid little attention to him.

When his turn came to plead the Judge, noticing his apparent respectability, questioned him kindly.

He answered incoherently and then, with a wild laugh, he burst out into a torrent of incoherent words. The court officers seized him, and after a severe struggle locked him

The charge of intextication was then changed to one of insanity, and the unfortunate man was removed to the Bellevue Hospital insane pavilion.

McLaughlin was arrested yesterday by Officer McCauley, of the Madison street station, who found him acting queerly on the street. He was well dressed, and when searched in the station-house a roll of bills appearance to $150 was amounting to $150 was a amounting to $130 was among his effects.

MAN UNDER HER BED.

Mrs. Lind Sighted Him Just as She Was About to Retire.

Market Court to-day for an unwelcome intrusion upon the family of John Lind, 33 West Twenty-seventh street. West Twenty-seventh street.

When Mrs. Lind was about to retire last night she caught sight of a man under the bed. A policeman was called in and he was dragged out and taken to the station-house.

The programme for the inaugural concert of he New York Reed Club, to be given next Friday evening at Chickering Hall, includes quintets by Sobeck, Liszt and Mozart, and a quartet by Saint-Saens arranged for the flute, oboc, clarinet and piano. All these will be given for the first time in this country. The Club will be assisted by Miss Virginia Rider, pianist, and Miss Alma Hultkrantz, soprano.

At Eanse City yesterday Joseph Underwood beat the world's record by killing 52 live rigeometraight, under Hurlingham rules. His opponent killed 51. In a cocking main on Staten Island yesterday morn-ing Long Island Sefeated New Brunswick, winning three of the five battles. The conditions were $200 on the main and $50 on each battle.

A sweep stakes match has been arranged between George Slosson, Maurice baly, William Sexton and Eugene Carter at cushion carroms, 400 points up, to take place in this city in April. The entrance tee is $250. As Jake Schaefer declines to play anything but balk-line tilliards, he will not enter.

Here are the Clifton entries for Monday, First Race—Purse $250, selling allowances; six and e-half furlings,—Hot Scotch, 107, Margo, 107, Juris, rron, 107, Monte Cristo, 105, Miss Mouse, 104, n't Tell, 104; Bass Viot, 103, Woodstock, 100, Pen-mis, 100 b.

nis, 100 lb.
scand Race Purse $250; selling allowances; arg a half furiouss. Relax 107; Hay Radge, 105; Sas, 103 Paiaks, 103, Mary T. 105; Mollie Thomas, 1da West, 100; Jack Harkaway, 100; Fiddler, th, tird Bace—Purse $250; one mile and a sixteenth— est, 124; Harrodsburg, 124; Light House (formerly do), 124; Ovid, 119; Boodle, 149; Cloutarf, 119; Purse $25; selling allowances one low II., 126; Harwood, 119; Count

2 O'CLOCK.

Making Ready for the Expedition to the Interior.

En Route to Stanley.

ZANZIBAR, Feb. 23.—Stevens, THE WORLD'S explorer, has just arrived here.

n quest of Stanley. Many couriers familiar with the country nd people have been engaged.

by the Arabs. The expedition will move to the interior at the earliest moment possible.

WELL, WHAT DOES IT MEAN

Mr. Baldwin Is Mr. Lorillard's Manager. and His Lawyer Says He Knows Pretty Nearly Where He Is However, He Wen't Tell, and He Says This Advertisement Must Be the Practical Joke of a

MR. T. B. BALDWIN is earnestly requested to send his present address to 67 Wall at

W. H. G. Peters, who has a desk in the office of Stephen P. Nash, the lawyer, at the address given in the above, is the personal representative of Mr. Baldwin in this city.

shown to him by an Evening World reporter this morning. "I did not put it in, ecause I know his address already. It is right here in this office, and all his correspondence comes to me and I open it.

"Mr. Baldwin is the manager of the hotel and property of Mr. Lorillard, at Tuxedo l'ark, where he has his permanent residence. Whenever he is in town, this is his office; but he doesn't some here of ten."

"Is he at Tuxedo Park now?"

"No. He has been off on a vaccition trie.

No. He has been off on a vacation trip for some time past, but is expected home soon. Just where he is now, I cannot tell you; but he is travelling somewhere in this country."

"Do you know of any reason why he "Do you know of any reason why he should conceal his present whereabouts?"

"None whatever. When he went away he left no instructions with me to conceal his address, or to put off inquiries about him, and this personal surprises me very much. I am inclined to think some one of his acquaintances put it in for a joke. There seems to be no other possibly evolunation of it."

joke. There seems to be no other possible explanation of it."

Mr. Peters declined to give any more definite answer to the question as to Mr. Baldwin's present whereabouts than that he was somewhere in the country, although he admitted that he knew just about where he was, and put his refusal to do so on the ground that it was not necessary to inform the public where his principal was or what he was lic where his principal was or what he doing just at present.

ANNOTATED NEWS.

So there is to be a new union of royalties. The Prince of Battenberg is to marry a queen of the pera. Leisinger is the singing bird caged in Another point is settled for fashionable Washngton. The Presbyterian Church of the Coveant is to be the church of the Administration. len. Harrison and Mr. Blaine bave both se cured seats there.

Hunger drives the gentlest natures to fits of lesperation. At Burgettstown, Pa., a starving leer savagely attacked a little girl, whose life sas only saved by prompt assistance.

allway officials by insisting on paying his fare on the special train provided for his journey to Washington. Grandfather's hat is not such an entirely bad fit. . . . Ingenious Passenger Agent Lewis, of the Can-da Pacific road, proposes a passenger's return rebate marriage certificate, entitling the holder. when it is filled out, to reduced honeymoon rates for himself and his wife. It is designed to assist young male settlers in the great Northwest in bringing their wives from the East, that the country may grow.

cars old, and that she had been sent to this ty from Key West by the authorities there for to purpose of confining her in a pauper insti-tion here. Dispute of Commission of the West of the police here, with a verbal message to the cy West authorities to take care of their own opers. raupers.

Nearly one hundred members of the St. Paul Lyceum gathered at Wilson's restaurant, on Fulton street. Brooklyn, to participate in the annual dinner given by the Club. Rev. Fathers Gamon and Tierney made brief speeches and Mr. Briody and Mr. Quinn kept the assemblage in an uproar with funny sayings. Father Gamon leaves Brooklyn for Florida next week for the benefit of his health, which has been quite poor of late.

GET OUT YOUR MUFFLERS. THERE'S REAL WINTER AHEAD, THE

WEATHER CLERK SAYS. The Mercury Is Going to Sink Down to Zero To-Morrow and Hang There-At Manitoba the Temperature Is 52 Degrees Below Zero To-Day, and It Is 60

A genuine blast of Winter swept down upon New York last night, and this morning it touched up the noses and ears of pedestrians with a sharpness that has not been felt this Winter. The mercury even crouched way down low in its shell of glass as though it felt the effects of the blast. A high wind from the northwest filled every one's eyes, ears and northwest filed every one's cycs, each said walking was not pleasant, to say the least.

Sergt. Dunn, the genial weather clerk, said that this blast was to be the coldest of any yet experienced.

The mercury will go down lower and lower and lower until it stands at the notch marked zero and there it will stick.

zero, and there it will stick.

This will happen early to morrow morning and during the day will not go higher than four or five degrees above.

The lowest point registered to-day was at 8 o'clock this morning, when the mercury stood at 12 degrees above zero. At 11 o'clock it was only three degrees higher.

Key West is the warmest spot in the United Rey West is the warmers agot in the Cantest States to-day, the temperature being 60 de-grees above. Everywhere else, from the ex-treme northwest to the Gulf of Mexico, the cold is intense. In Minnedona, Manitoba, they have the fearful temperature of 52 degrees below zero.

At St. Paul, Minn., it is 26 degrees below zero. St. Louis is warmer, the temperature there being zero.

Canada and Pittsburg will probably enjoy aleighing to-morrow, for it is snowing there,
In the northern part of this State the cold will be very severe, and the mercury will probably dron fifteen or twenty degrees betow zero. During he cold wave in this city the weather will be fair, with brisk northerly and weaterly winds. and westerly winds.

M'GEE ALLOWED TO RESIGN.

A POLICEMAN WHO GOT DRUNK AND LET HIS PRISONER ESCAPE.

The resignation of Policeman Thomas F. McGee, of the Eighteenth Precinct, was received by Inspector Williams this morning. accompanied by the officer's shield and fire-accompanied by the officer's shield and arekey.

McGee was detailed yesterday to take to the Yorkville Police Court Mathew Stadler, a blacksmith living at 42! East Twenty-fifth street, arrested for an assault upon Margaver Minsal, a child who lived in the same house.
On the way towards the Court-house McGee stepped several times to sample the liquid goods in stock at the saloons.
As a consequence, he didn't get as far as Yorkville with his man, the latter finding a ready opportunity to escape.

The policeman returned to the stationhouse in an advanced stage of intoxication, utterly unfit to perform any duty.

utterly unfit to perform any duty.

He was ordered back into the section-room and was subsequently allowed to sign his resignation, which he did with a tremulous

Detectives were at once sent out to hunt up

HIS FRIEND APPLIED THE MATCH. A Most Serious Joke Played on Mr. Ginzebrook While Getting Shaved. ISPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD, ! BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Feb. 23. - Thomas ilazebrook entered a barber shop last even ing and was shaved, after which he sat up in the barber's chair for the finishing touches to his bair. Standing near him was William Walsh, a friend, who was about to light a cigarette. The barber soused Glazebrook's head with generous dash of bay rum and remarked jocosely to Walsh, who still held a lighted match: "Touch him off." The latter applied the match and man inthe inter applied the match and it an in-stant Glazebrook's head was in flames. Glazebrook was pulled from the chair and the two men tried to smother the fire with towels, but not until the barber's assistant threw a pail of water over the burning bay-rum and hair were the flames entirely subdued. Glazebrook's head was badly turned. Medical aid was summend, and the doctor's opinion is that hereafter Glazebrook will be perfectly bald.

SOLVING A MURDER MYSTERY.

The Supposed Assussin of a Dredger Work

SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD. Boston, Feb. 23.-The mysterious murder of Nicholas Furlong may be removed from the list of unfathomed crimes.

A man whom the police believe is the assassin has been arrested, and must explain in court some awkward circumstances connecting him with the case.

IFurlong was found dead in his bunk on board the dredger on which he was employed at East Boston Wednes lay.

He had been shot through the right temple by an unknown as-assin.

by an unknown as-assin.

The police vesterday arrested William J.
Bozeman, a fellow workman, on suspicion.

A 32-calibre revolver carrying the same size bullet as that which entered the head of Furlong was found upon him.

Three chambers had been discharged.

Bozeman will be arraigned to-day

---The Seventh Regiment Glee Club will give a festival concert at the regimental armory tonight. The programme is varied and of great promise, including the overture to "Mignon," the Torreador's song from "Carmen, "Koscha's
"The Blacksmith," the polacca from "I Puri-tant and the ballet numle from "Faust," Sig. Del Puente, Miss Campbell and J. H. Me-kinley are the soloists.

Good Results of the Ludies' Fair. The fair which has been held by the Ladies Hebrew Aid Society during the past week has proved a great financial success. In the popularity contest The World was voted the most popular newspaper and Mrs. P. Segree the most charming lady. Broker William Woiff won the gold-headed cane.

A Young Jail-Breaker.

[SPECIAL TO THE EVENING WORLD.] PITTSBURG, Pa., Feb. 23.—James Doran, aged fourteen, escaped from the new County Jail, yesterday, by climbing a lightning rod from one of the yards, scaling the roof and then aliding down a rod leading to the street.

WHICH KILLED HIM?

PRICE ONE CENT.

Henry Corders Murdered and His Wife and Cousin Locked Up.

The Woman Supposed to Have Caused His Death.

A Terrible Fight in Which a Platter Played a Serious Part.

A good looking German, with a blond mustache, lay an a bed in a room on the second floor, of No. 192 Bleecker street, when an EVENING WORLD reporter entered this morning. He was stretched out on his back. His arms were crossed on his chest.

His stockinged feet rested one upon the other in a comfortable position. His large blue eyes were wide open and seemed to follow the course of an insect that was slowly crawling across the ceiling.
At a distance you would think he was meditating, but approach, and at a glance you would see that he was dead.

A long, jagged cut on the left temple, encrusted with coagulated blood, evidenced the cause of death. He was murdered between midnight and 1

He was murdered between midnight and 1 o'clock this morning, and his wife Emma is arrested on suspicion of killing him.

His name was Henry Cerders. He was forty years old, and bore a good reputation.

Mrs. Corders is a stout. West Indian woman, and looks like a mulatto. She was forty-four years old yesterday.

To celebrate the event her husband invited her second cousin, Theodore Eneters, of 420 Ocean avenue, Jersey City, to supper last evening.

After the meal the two began drinking.

After the meal the two began drinking. They made very merry during the earlier hours of the night, but at about 11 p. M. they began to quarrel.

Other tenants in the house heard the woman's voice shricking and cursing.

She was a fury, a veritable tigress when in temper or her passion aroused by liquor.

Her husband was always quiet, and he was beard pleading with her to keep quiet. At intervals until the midnight hour had sounded she was heard raving about in the room.

Then suddenly a fearful uproar was heard in the room, dishes were heard smashing against the doors and walls, and at last a man's voice shrisking." Let me get out!"
Louis Chenau, who lived in an adjoining room, rushed to Corders's door and opened it. The sight he saw was a sayage one.
In the corner, near the door, Corders was lying, his face covered with blood, while his wife, a picture of all diabolical, stood over him and kicked him. Her thick features, flushed with rum and rage, looked fiendsh as she spurned the body at her feet.
Chenan and Arthur Challet, another neighbor, rushed in to rescue the prostrate man.
They picked him up and laid him on the bed.

They found of the room. Baptists
Ebelers dashed out of the room. Baptists Reynaud and Jules Clavel, the landlord of the house, a armed by the terrible uproar, rushed out for a policeman.
They found Officer Bennoil, of the Mercer street station, and he went into the house with them.

with them.
On the way they met Ehelers running out, and arrested him.

When they entered the room Mrs. Corders was trying to climb out of the rear window. Bennoul pulled her back.

Then he looked at her husband on the bed.

stained on one edge. This was fitted to the would on the dead man's temple, and proved to be the missile that caused his death. I help is aid he did not know who threw it. The woman, sobered by the tragedy, re-

She would neither admit nor deny that she fired the platter which killed her husbaud. She was locked up on a charge of murder, and Ehelers was held as an accessory. Neither of them was any more communicative when seen by an Evening World reporter this morning.

The room where the tragedy occurred is poorly furnished, and presented a scene of the contract of the co the direct confusion when inspected by The Evening World reporter to-day. Broken dishes, glasses, bottles, bed clothes, up-turned chairs, knives, forks and coal littered the floor.

Dirt covered everything. Policeman Costello, in his shirt sleeves, kept lonely vigil with the dead man.
Everybody in the house had a good word to say for Corders.

He worked in a paper-box factory in Carlion, near Houston street, and earned $20 a week. He gave his wages regularly to his wife. Just as regularly she spent them for drink. or drink.
She was his second wife. He married her blackened.

When arraigned before Coroner Messemer Mrs. Corders denied killing her husband, but admitted being drunk yesterday, and stated that Fhelers, her husband and herself had participated in a free fight last night,
She did not charge Fhelers with commit-

Broker Turnure's Sudden Death at the Door of His Home. David Mitchell Turnure, the well known Wall street sugar broker, died suddenly at his home Thursday night, after entertaining a party of his friends there. He accompanied several of his friends part of their way home and on going up the steps to his own house, was seized with faintness and died in a few minutes. He was in his eventicth year, and enjoyed good health up to the hour of his death.

The Last of the Victims Recovered. HARTFORD, Conn., Feb. 23,—The twenty third victim of the Park Central Hotel disaster was found this morning. The body was identi-fied as that of Edward Boyle, who had done chores around the hotel for his board.

NOW MAKE IT A LAW

Bill to Be Passed Without Delay.

THE PROPOSED AMENDMENT. Drawn by a well-known Eupreme Court Judge. 1

Following closely upon the indorsement by action to similar effect. Randall, of the Nineteenth District, at the meeting of the County Committee the other night. He offered the following resolution:

of the Ninth.

Mr. Randall then addressed the Committee in behalf of the resolution. He said:

"The great public interest that is now being evinced in the matter to which this amendment relates is well known.

"The Evening World, as is widely known, has been convently adjusting for reform.

those of Josie Shephard and Tina Weiss, which illustrate the wrong that has been done under the law as it now exists and the necessity of the amendment to the law as proposed by The Evenng World.

"The law now permits a police magistrate to have the sole and arbitrary power of committing these children. This has rendered it almost impossible for a parent to regain possession of his or her child.

sands of miles away.

It is time that this great wrong should be remedied and the kidnapping of poor chil-dren should be prevented in this metropolis and in this State. It is the duty of the Republican party projected and upheld.

"We shall aid, therefore, in this glorious movement which The Evening Wolld in how so vigorously prosecuting, and which has been also indorsed at a general meeting torn from the arms of its parents without some right af review by a competent court. "A case like Tina Weiss's came under my own observation some three or four weeks ago. Mrs. Rachel Myers was dispossessed for ringens was afraid the case would be decided against him.

"To my own personal knowledge they never had been neglected.
"Their faces and general appearance showed they had received excellent care.
"I went to Mr. Gerry, the Society's President, but could not get the slightest satisfaction.

"So he suggested a nominal fine be imposed on Mrs. Myers, which was done.

"She was fined $1, which Jinkens paid."

After Mr. Randall's speech, which stirred his audience to many manifestations of approval, the resolution was unanimously peased.

Assassins.

When it had proceeded a short distance

When this was done the other three men frightened.

ANOTHER YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE. of the Y. M. C. A.

A new educational enterprise, indorsed by News Summary. Gen. Harrison and his family are busy making preparations to move from Indianapolis to the White House.

Mrs. Georgiana Myers, who has been on trial for two weeks at Morrisville. N. Y., on a charge of murdering her child, is acquitted by the jury.

MURDERER YET FOUND.

A considerable number of the letters found

Another, brief and emphatic, contained these words:

Clark was twenty-five years old.good-look-ing, and much more successful in affairs of the heart than in business. It is thought possible that a wronged hus-

A prisoner who had given the name of John C. McLaughlin was brought to Essex Market The court officers noticed that he appeared

The charge of intoxication was then

Joseph Pabylon was arraigned at Jefferson

In court he said he was a waiter out of work, and got under Mrs. Line's bed to get out of the way. He was held for trial. The Reed Club's First Concert.

The Nonparell Foot-Ball Club defeated the Long ellows, at Ridgewood Park yesterday, by one goal to nothing.

Does Boston really enjoy the epidemic of wrestling matches? Duncan C. Ross has at last succeeded in defeating Capt. J. C. Daly there.

Steinitz won the fifteenth game of chess at Havana. He made 36 moves in three bours and a half. The game was begun with the Evans gambit.

Ben Washburn is to manage a fifty-one-hour go-as you please race in Belleville Hink, Newark, bestiming Feb. 28. Happy Jack Smith is to act as referse. Herty, Golden, Hegelman and Elson are among the entries. Herty, Golden, Hegelman and Rison are smong the entries.

Dr. W. F. Carver's arm is in bad shape, and he fears he will never be able to regain his old form with the traps. He will, however, be on hand to shoot with Handle, at Cincinnati, March 16, Stice, at Cincinnati, March 23, and Budd, at Dubuque, March 23.

Clifton Entries for Monday. (REPECIAL TO THE EVENISH WORLD, 1 CLIFTON RACE TRACK, N. J., Feb., 23,-

STEVENS AT ZANZIBAR. "The World's" Famous Explorer

To Start in Quest of the Great Explorer at the Earliest Moment,

He is now organizing his expedition to go

All preparations are being pushed as rapdly as possible. The most reliable information as to Staney's probable whereabouts is being gleaned before starting, together with the latest inteligence about the operations of the slaveraders and the massacre of the missionaries

AN EARNEST INQUIRY AS TO THE WHERE-ABOUTS OF T. B. BALDWIN.

"I cannot conceive what is meant by that personal, " said Mr. Peters, when it was Alexander's palace.

President-elect Harrison has surprised the

Not Importing American Paupers. An aged blind woman was found by the police wandering about the streets last night. She vid her name was Fredericka Morgan, sixty

One glance was enough. He was dead Near the door the policeman picked up the fused to say a word at all.

She would neither admit nor deny that she

She was his second wife. He married her ten years ago, his first wife having died. He had no children by either union.

The prisoners were brought to the Coro-ner's office by Policeman Bennoil this morning.

These Elielers declared that he knew nothing whatever about the tracedy. He said that he fell as eep after supper, and did not awake until after Corders had been murdered.

He could not account for his left eye being blackened.

The Coroner sent her to the Tombs without The inquest will be held Monday. Ehelers was sent to the House of Detention Brooklyn Church Entertainment. The annual supper and entertainment of the Ladies' Aid Society of the York Street M. E. Church, York and Gold streets, Brooklyn, tool place last evening. There was a solo by Miss Kate Mullon, a recitation by Miss Hirstins, a pisno duet by Miss Mamie McConbuy and Prof. Duboise and a vocal solo by Miss Bells Walsh, Other performers were Mrs. Geo. Gray, Miss Van Fleet, T. C. Scafe, C. P. Comer and John Scott.